Earam has been taken care of medicinal and provisional expenses of Mr. Nagaiyan, aged 48, Pondicherry, for more than eight years. He is suffering from Blood cancer and he has two girls who are studying. One volunteer came forward this time to support Earam in providing them full family expenses needed for one month and dress for his children. Mr. Nagaiyan's health is getting worse every day and Earam wish to continue helping him along with the aid of more volunteers

8.9.2018. Rickshaw mama building function.

Mr. Savarinathan, popularly known as 'Rickshaw Mama' in Dubrayapet & Vambakeerapalayam, was a good old friend of Mr. Esudass, Founder Earam. He has donated his only place at Rajiv Gandhi Nagar (Behind New light House) for the development of poor children of Dubrayapet and Vambakeerapalayam before his death. A new building was constructed namely 'Child Development Centre' by Mr. John Peter with the help of many sponsors including Earam. Below are the moments of the inauguration of the building on 8.9.2018. Earam is proud to be a part of the service dreamed by Rickshaw mama.
